

CALIFORNIA PRIVACY POLICY

Effective Date: 12/20/2022

GATX Corporation and its affiliated entities (“GATX”) are committed to respecting your privacy and protecting your personal information. This California Privacy Policy applies to any California residents about whom we have collected personal information for purposes of providing our products and services to our customers (collectively, “you”). This primarily includes personal information about California residents who are employed by or otherwise represent businesses and other legal entities with which GATX does business and engages on a business-to-business basis as a business contact, representative, or prospective lead (hereafter, “B2B Data”).

We provide this California Privacy Policy to comply with applicable privacy laws, including the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018 and as amended by the California Privacy Rights Act of 2020 (together, the “CCPA”). The CCPA provides California residents with rights to receive certain disclosures regarding the collection, use, and sharing of personal information, as well as rights to access, correct, delete, and restrict the sale, use, and disclosure of certain personal information we collect about them, unless exceptions apply. California residents also have the right not to receive discriminatory treatment by us for the exercise of your privacy rights under the CCPA. If you are a California resident, you may submit a request to exercise these rights by emailing us or by accessing the GATX Ethics and Compliance Portal using the information provided in the Your Privacy Rights section below.

For the purposes of this Policy, except where a different definition is noted, “personal information” means information that identifies, relates to, describes, is reasonably capable of being associated with, or could reasonably be linked, directly or indirectly, with a particular California resident or household. Personal information does not include publicly available information; lawfully obtained, truthful information that is a matter of public concern; information that has been de-identified or aggregated; or other information covered by certain sector-specific privacy laws, as consistent with state law. Any capitalized term used and not otherwise defined below has the meaning assigned to it in our Privacy Policy.

This California Privacy Policy governs personal information collected for business-to-business purposes. To learn more about our privacy practices with respect to personal information collected for employment-related purposes, please refer to our California Employee Privacy Policy.
